Dear Rector González:

In the event you have not already heard, Mr. John P. Harrison left his position at the Rockefeller Foundation at the end of June to become director of the Institute of Latin American Studies at the University of Texas in Austin.

It had been Mr. Harrison's hope to obtain approval before he left of the grant requested to the University of Concepción towards the expenses of its Writers' Workshop for the academic year 1962-63. There has been some delay in our final consideration of this proposal, however, and I now anticipate a final decision next week.

You will be informed of this as soon as the decision is taken and I just wanted to give you this interim word on where the matter stands.

Sincerely yours,

CHADBOURNE GILPATRIC
