Dear Sergio:

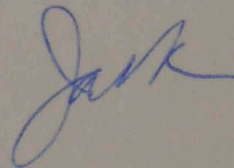

This is to acknowledge with thanks your letter of January 4. I have written a note to Lysander Kemp telling him that eventually he will be hearing from you with payment of half the royalties you received for the production of "Let the Dogs Bark" in Dallas. May I again thank you for the generous way you have acted in this matter. As you can see, I was in a somewhat embarrassing spot.

Thanks also for the suggestion of two Argentine and one Peruvian play. I have written friends in each country asking them to secure copies for me.

I have received a telegram from Rector Stitchkin telling me that a formal letter requesting Foundation assistance to the Taller de Escritores for a second year is in the mails. As soon as it is received I will bring it into immediate discussion with my colleagues and let you know their reaction which I, along with you, hope will be favorable.

With all the best to you, Betty, and the incipient Vodanovic,

Sincerely,

John P. Harrison
