GIROL Books introduces Colección Telón

With this three volume anthology GIROL initiates its Colección Telón, designed to make available at reasonable prices the major works of 20th century Spanish-American theatre.

The format of three plays per volume has been chosen to allow professors flexibility in their choice of plays since the volumes may be purchased individually.

The selection of the nine plays presented here has been made by professors Dauster, Lyday, and Woodyard on the basis of artistic quality: all of these plays have been recognized as among the most outstanding works of 20th century Spanish-American theatre. As well, they are representative of the major theatrical tendencies of this century.

The anthology contains a general introduction to Spanish-American theatre in Volume I as well as a short introduction to each author. A general selective bibliography is repeated at the end of each volume along with a short bibliography of critical studies on the works of each playwright.

GIROL will continue its Colección Telón with two plays in one volume by Ricardo Talesnik: La fiaca and Cien veces no debo (the latter with a revised ending).
