FIVE NEW THEATRE STARS!

Dear Theatre Friend:

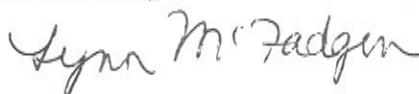

I'd like to introduce you to Canadian Theatre Review Publications' exciting new books for 1979. You'll find they are fascinating and useful additions to your personal or professional theatre collection.

Of particular interest is the comprehensive directory of 70 theatre schools and programs in Canada; an expanded Canadian Theatre Checklist -- invaluable for job hunting and reference; and an outstanding new guide to Canada's major playwrights. Also included in this year's program is the second edition of the play anthology series, Women Pioneers, and the new edition of Canada on Stage: Canadian Theatre Review Yearbook featuring some 160 theatres.

To stay on top of the on-going developments in the Canadian theatre scene, why not subscribe to the Canadian Theatre Review, if you haven't already?

To get your copies of CTR Publications' new books, complete the order form on the back of the enclosed catalogue. We'll send them to you hot off the press.

Sincerely,

Lynn McFadgen
